The level of support we receive from the Employment Solutions Service at Canter Levin and Berg is first-rate. Without reservation I would recommend the Employment Solutions Service from Canter Levin and Berg.

Brendan Farrell, Head of Human Resources, St Helens Council

St Helens Council have been greatly impressed with the approachable nature of Canter, Levin & Berg and their responsive attitude in terms of sound and pragmatic legal and procedural advice. The Council's representation at Tribunals has been conducted, with the thorough professionalism we would expect. The Council has benefited from the advocacy skills which underpin the experience and reputation of an organisation such as Canter Levin & Berg."

Bill Hughes – Quality Consultant – TBR Contract Services Ltd

We have had a working contract with Canter, Levin, Berg for a few years now and, for a relatively small company, have had more than our fair share of HR issues, particularly TUPE, several redundancies and one or two under-performing staff.

We have always found the advice given by the company, and Katharine Kelly in particular, to be sound, up to date and given within quick response times. Having followed the advice given, we have never found ourselves in the position where an employee has taken any issue any further. This has helped us to move the business forward in the way we would wish.

We would recommend CLB to any company looking for excellence from their HR services provider.
